WOMAN'S CLUB SEE FLORAL ARRANGEMENTS

Many attractive and unusual floral arrangements were made and displayed by Miss Irene Burgess of Wareham at the meeting of the Mattapoisett Woman's Club on Thursday afternoon in the vestry of the Mattapoisett Congregational Church. Miss Burgess, from Irene's House of Flowers, gave advice on arranging and caring of flowers for the best results.

Her arrangements were awarded to some of those present and among those to receive them were Miss Josephine Perry, Mrs. Milton Smythe, Mrs. Marshall Ross, Mrs. Robert Townsend, Miss Edith Wallen, Mrs. John Murphy, Mrs. Frederic E. Reynard, Mrs. Leonard A. Burnham, Mrs. Chester Ryer, Mrs. Charles Williams and Mrs. Anthony J. Pelson.

The business meeting was conducted by Mrs. Anthony J. Sylvia and the invocation was given by Mrs. C. W. Tylee. Mrs. Sylvia announced that the mid-winter meeting of the state federation will be February 17th at the John Hancock Hall in Boston.

Mrs. Frank Kouble, membership chairman, announced two new members, Mrs. Ervin A. Frye and Mrs. Kenneth Wiggin. It was voted to donate $25 to the March of Dimes and $10 to the Massachusetts Heart Association. A collection was taken for the Penny Art Fund.

Mrs. Robert A. Bailey, Literature-drama chairman, announced that the annual play

MARION WINS BY 1 POINT IN CLOSELY CONTESTED BASKETBALL GAME

The Mattapoisett Center School basketball team played against the Marion team Friday evening with the scoreboard reading 38 to 37 in favor of Marion at the close of the game. It was an excellent game and a very close contest. Outstanding players for Mattapoisett were Tom Ward, highest scorer, and Bob Furnans, who, although he has been out of practice for a week because of an injury, played very good.

TELEPHONE GAME PARTIES

Mrs. Manuel P. Correia, chairman of the Ways and Means Committee of the Mattapoisett Woman's Club, requests that hostesses for the series of Telephone Game Parties contact her or any member of her committee to report names of persons having high scores for each afternoon's or evening's play, and to remit the proceeds..

For the information of any members interested in having these parties, the fee is 25¢ for each player, the hostess providing some small prize and refreshments, the parties to be held monthly through May. At the annual meeting names of the winners will be drawn for the awarding of final prizes. Committee members assisting Mrs. Correia are Mrs. Nishan Berberian, Mrs. Malcolm Coderre, Mrs. Grace Engesser, Mrs. Frank Kouble, Mrs. Clifton Macomber, Mrs. Charles Johnson and Mrs. Kenneth Wood.

SOME THOUGHTS OF MINE FRIENDS
by Murray R. Tuttle

True friends are like the sunshine they give one such a lift.
They somehow hold one steady when he starts to go adrift.
When one goes out upon the street and is greeted here and there By friends who really like him, he feels the world is fair.

Everyone has his troubles, some big and others small,
At least they look that way, when we're up against the wall
And don't know what to do, nor yet which way to turn
A friend speaks kindly to you, your blessing he did earn.

For in that kindly gesture he's brought new thoughts to you
And the world doesn't seem so lonely knowing just a few Somehow like your friendships enough to holler "Hi",
It is indeed a gesture that helps to see blue sky.

When one is down or grieving, his thoughts are blank despair.
A friendly knock upon the door and sunshine fills the air.
And so a friendly gesture from a person now
and then

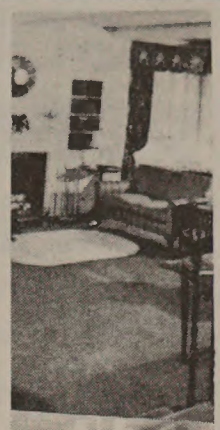
ONE POLICY protects all your personal belongings



Now you can insure your and your family's personal belongings all in the one PERSONAL PROPERTY FLOATER policy, and so eliminate the many different kinds of policies you may now have for Fire, Residence Burglary, Personal Effects, Jewelry, Furs, Sports Equipment, Fine Arts, Water Damage, Cameras, etc.

At the same time, you obtain practically "All Risks" protection against loss or damage, and also benefit by broader coverage than you would receive under all of the policies, combined.

This policy covers in the home, away from home, or wherever personal belongings may be everywhere and anywhere.

ROCHESTER WOMAN'S CLUB MEET

The Rochester Woman's Club, Inc. entertained about 50 members and guests at their regular meeting Thursday night in the Club House at Rochester Center. Mr. Manuel Corey of Corey Bros. Florists from New Bedford made many beautiful flower arrangements that were auctioned off for the benefit of the club. He was assisted by Mr. Frank Corey and Mr. Anthony Teberrie of Arlington, who described the kinds of flowers and containers used. A beautiful arrangement of spring flowers that was given away was won by Mrs. Merton Hartley and sent to her grandmother, Mrs. Thomas Whitfield who is ill in Marion.

Others winning flower arrangements were Mrs. Henry Hartley, Mr. Lewis Knight of Mattapoisett, Mrs. Norman Collet of Acushnet, Mrs. Maxwell Gifford, Mrs. Donald Jenkins, Mrs. David Fearing, and Mrs. Annie L. Hartley was presented an orchid for being the oldest lady present. Mrs. Harry Peckham, hostess, assisted by the officers of the club, served coffee and cake.

HORNBLOWERS TO PRESENT PLAY "YOU CAN'T TAKE IT WITH YOU"

The Hornblowers of the St. Gabriel's Church in Marion have chosen the play "You Can't Take It With You" to be presented on Friday and Saturday February 18th and 19th at the Veterans of Foreign War Hall in Marion.

This hilarious comedy by Kaufman and Hart captured the Pulitzer Prize as the best play of its season and won the Academy Award when it was converted into a movie.

The Reverend Lawrence Somers has been assigned the role of Grandpa Vanderhof, the merry old zany who rules the crackpot roost of the Sycamore family. A large cast will be playing some of the most unpredictable characters ever seen on a stage, including Mrs. Eugene Heikoff as Penelope, the accidental playwright whose writing career began when a typewriter was delivered at the house by mistake; Mr. Hillard Lukin as Boris, the ballet teacher, and Miss Susan Roche as Essie, the erstwhile candy-maker who has been Boris' pupil for a mere eight years.

Paul and Mr. De Pinna, who manufacture fireworks in the Sycamore basement, will by played respectively by Frantz Warner and Mr. Peter Freedman, and Mr. Edwin Babbitt, Jr. will act the part of Ed, who is a printer when he isn't playing the xylophone. Mrs. Edwin Babbitt, Jr. and Mr. James Babbitt will supply the love interest, in the roles of Alice and Tony, while Tony's dignified parents, who accidentally wander into the mad Sycamore household for dinner on the wrong evening, will be played by Mrs. E. Leslie Goodwin and Mr. Brooks Hawkins.

Other important roles will be portrayed

CELEBRATED BIRTHDAY

Lucy Jane Fearing celebrated her third birthday on January 24th.

Her sister, Leona, has been in bed for 12 days with complications from measles.

Katherine Anne, a baby sister, is now at home from the hospital and improving.

HONORED AT SURPRISE PARTY

Mrs. George E. Knight was honored at a surprise party to celebrate her 65th birthday at her home in Rochester. The party was given by her daughter, Mrs. Ollie Ramo. She received an orchid corsage and a large bouquet of red and white carnations. Forty-five guests were present from Abington, Mattapoisett, Rochester and Wareham. Two birthday cakes made by Mrs. David Fearing and Mrs. Ramo, sandwiches and coffee were enjoyed.

FAMILY NIGHT AT ROCHESTER CHURCH

Family night was held at the First Congregational Church in Rochester on January 30th. The program was in charge of the Senior Pilgrim Fellowship. It started at 6:30 with refreshments served in the vestry followed by worship and recreation.

At the 10:30 service on Sunday, the Rev. Ward A. Knight preached a sermon the subject of which was "The Power of God".
